

CANDIDACY STATEMENT FOR IASP ELECTION 18-19

Dharmendra Pratap Singh

Dr. Dharmendra Pratap Singh (D P Singh) is a Professor at School of Research Methodology of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai since 1985. He has completed his master degree in Statistics from Vikram University, Ujjain and Ph. D. in Population Sciences from International Institute of Population Sciences, Mumbai affiliated to Bombay University. His main research interest is migration issues in addition to displacement and rehabilitation, impact of earthquakes in Jammu and Kashmir, employment, health issues, socio economic issues of minorities (Muslim and Parsis). I had completed 25 research projects, published 25 papers in reputed journals and successfully organized 50 programme on data analysis in social sciences. He has been invited as resource person on Research methodology, SPSS and quantitative data analysis to various universities across the country. Some published papers are 1. Population trends, Mumbai Human Development Report, 2009, 2. Poverty and Migration: Does moving help published in Urban Poverty report: India 2009, 3. Migration in Mumbai: fifty years review in Demography India, 2008, 4. Some completed reports: Socio-economic, educational and health profile of Muslims of Maharashtra, Parsis of Mumbai: A Socio Demographic Profile, 2000, Population trends, Maharashtra Development Report 2012, Impact of OBC reservation policy in higher education, Damage and Needs Assessment Report, The Jammu and Kashmir Earthquake: A Rapid Assessment of Impacts and Needs – Uri and Karnah tehsils, Social Impact Assessment Gorakhpur Haryana Anu Vidyut Paryojna (GHAVP) of Nuclear Power Corporation of India ltd, 2015.

I am life member of IASP from 1986 and served executive council in 2016-18 and four terms of board of Trustee member. I had been attending most of National conferences of IASP and presenting papers. I have consistently worked towards promoting the activities of IASP in India. If elected, I plan to work and expand the opportunities for early career demographers, population scientist and researchers by mobilizing resources for meetings, scholarships, training courses, etc -in middle, and low income countries and also encourage them to join the IASP.