

PhD in Demography at the London School of Economics and Political Science

Deadline for applications: 8 January 2018

Applications are invited for PhD studentships at the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) for the 2018/19 session. We welcome applications on any topic in the fields of demography/population studies, for further information see <http://www.lse.ac.uk/social-policy/study/MPhilPhD-programmes> .

Potential applicants are advised to contact a potential supervisor before applying, for a list see <http://www.lse.ac.uk/social-policy/study/MPhilPhD-programmes> . Fully-funded places may be available from the Economic and Social Research Council (including MSc training, and students may be eligible for additional funding for Advanced Quantitative Methods training during the MPhil/PhD) and LSE Scholarships. See <https://info.lse.ac.uk/current-students/phd-academy/esrc-doctoral-training-partnership/award-types> .

The deadlines for funded places are Monday 8 January 2018 (1st round) and Monday 26 April 2018 (second round if studentships have not all been allocated). All enquiries should be addressed to the Research degree programmes Administrator, Sarah Helias (s.helias@lse.ac.uk) or the Doctoral programme Director Professor Anne West (a.west@lse.ac.uk)
