DR D P Singh

After completing my Masters in Population Studies from Indian Institute of Population Studies, I completed my PhD degree from International Institute of Population Sciences, Mumbai affiliated to Bombay University in the area of Migration study. I joined Tata Institute of Social Sciences in 1985 in the school of Research Methodology. At TISS I got opportunity to teaching, training and consultancy. I also served on several National and International Committees such as urban poverty, Muslim in Rajasthan. Parsi of Mumbai. I Conducted nearly 50 data analysis programmes in social sciences sponsored by ICSSR and self-sponsored. I also conducted research methodology workshop for number of government organisation such as ISS, Education dept. I have published about 50 papers, and conducted 20 national level policy documents/ reports. I was conferred the following award K Srinivasan award for publishing in Demography India.

I joined IASP in 90's as life member and served IASP as executive member and board of trustee member. Also, member of IASSH executive committee organized six national conferences. I had been attending most of National conferences of IASP. I have consistently worked towards promoting the activities of IASP in India and other neighboring regions

If elected, I plan to work for networking and collaboration with the international organization in the field of Demography, public health, population policy, migration and urbanization, advocacy and socio economic development. I would like to work and expand the opportunities for early career demographers, population scientist and researchers by mobilizing resources for meetings, scholarships, training courses, etc - in middle, and low income countries and also encourage them to join the IASP.
